HIBERNIANS ELECT BLAKE PRESIDENT

Richmond Man Chosen at Tenth Biennial Convention at Roanoke.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., September 13.—The business of the tenth biennial convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Virginia was concluded this afternoon with the election of officers and the selection of Alexandria as the next meeting place.

The business session was opened this morning, and the reports of the various committees were heard. The most important report was that of the resolutions committee, which was adopted unanimously.

While the report on the proceedings covering the resolutions committee as given to the press is meagre, the first matter mentioned is socialism. The committee in Virginia language condemns socialism in all its forms.

The report also praises the Right Rev. Bishop D. J. O'Connell, and pledges the loyalty and obedience of the order to him and the Catholic clergy of Virginia.

The report contained a lengthy indictment of home rule for Ireland, the indorsement being couched in the strongest possible terms, and further expressed a feeling of good will for the great Irish leader, John B. Keim, and his associates in the British Parliament.

The resolutions committee further thanked Bishop John Keim for his cordial welcome extended to the order. The report expressed thanks to the press of Roanoke and the public-spirited citizens. It contained also generous praise and thanks to Roanoke for the manner in which the visitors have been treated.

The report of the committee was submitted by John T. Flood, of Portsmouth. The officers elected were: Honorary chaplain, the Right Rev. Dennis J. O'Connell, of Richmond; State president, John T. Blake, of Richmond; State vice-president, John T. Flood, of Portsmouth; State secretary, John F. Henson, of Roanoke; State treasurer, William E. Donnelly, of Norfolk; State chaplain, the Rev. Charles E. Donahue, of Portsmouth.

ESCAPED PRISONERS CAUGHT IN DANVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., September 13.—Four negroes, incarcerated in the Chatham Jail, all of them serving sentences for petty larceny, succeeded in making their way from their quarters between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock last night.

In the absence of Jailer McNeely, who, it is said, failed to lock the cage in which the men were quartered, the negroes climbed on top of it, succeeded in removing part of the corrugated iron roof, and with a rope made of bed-covers let themselves down outside the prison.

The escape was discovered at 10:30 o'clock, and Danville police were notified over the phone to watch all southbound trains closely. In the meantime the Chatham police got busy, and Sheriff Harvey boarded train No. 31, dismounted at Lima, and shortly afterwards, when a freight train arrived there, captured Matthew Johnson, one of the fugitives. At 2:30 this morning local officers caught two more, Oscar Allen and Major Howard, as they were walking over Washburn Street bridge from the railroad. The remaining man, John Adams, who is a fugitive, it is thought it will be a matter of time before he is caught.

OPENING OF SESSION AT THE GALAX HIGH SCHOOL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Galax, Va., September 13.—The Galax High School opened here Tuesday with the largest attendance in its history. On the first day there were enrolled in the high school department more than seventy-five pupils, while in the grammar school more than 200 others, making in all a total enrollment of nearly 300.

Among the pupils are many boarding students from various parts of the Southwest and some from North Carolina. The faculty is made up of all being at least college graduates, and many from some of the best of the many leading colleges and universities in the South.

The school is presided over by S. G. Wright and S. L. Payne, both of whom were trained at the University of Virginia. Both these men are natives of Carroll County, and are well known. The faculty of Roanoke, Mary Ring Cornett, Farmville Female Normal; Eva McMillan, Salem (N. C.); John E. Henson, of Roanoke; Valerius, Ind.; Lizzie Fay, James City; Washington College; Mayme McMillan and Ella Blake. This school has a four-year high school course, and though but seven years old, has turned out a great many young men and women who are making their mark in the world.

The outlook is for the best term in the history of the school.

TOBACCO TEST FARM WILL BE LOCATED IN GRANVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, N. C., September 13.—The test farm committee of the State Board of Agriculture decided this morning to purchase the Granville County home tract near Oxford, to be used as a tobacco test farm for the bright tobacco belt of North Carolina. The Granville commissioners have just accepted the offer of the test farm committee. The farm has 200 acres and is pronounced very satisfactory as to soil conditions. The tract is situated near the Granville County line, and is well drained. The location is considered very favorable for black soil, and will settle the location of this farm very soon.

ISSUES MANIFESTED AGAINST IMPOSTOR

Don Juan Likely to Make It Very Unpleasant for Bogus Prince.

BY LA MARQUESE DE PONTENON.
DON JUAN ALVARO KASTORIA, senior representative of the historic House of Kastoria and lines descendant of George Kastoria, known as "Scanderbeg," the national hero of Albania, has just issued a manifesto declaring that the impostor, Prince Don Juan, who has taken the name of Don Juan, is a very unpleasant person, and that he is likely to make it very unpleasant for the bogus prince if he falls into his hands.

Don Juan, who makes his home at Naples, in former times, of the Spanish diplomatic service, in which he retired with the rank of Minister Plenipotentiary, and in which his sister city he makes his headquarters. About a year or so ago, Sultan Abdul Hamid was supposed to have offered to him the post of Governor General of North and South Albania, but Don Juan was shrewd enough to understand that this was merely a scheme on the part of the sultan to use him as a puppet in the hands of the sultan. He refused the offer, and he is now in the hands of the sultan, and he is likely to make it very unpleasant for the bogus prince if he falls into his hands.
